

GRAMMAR CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Across:

- 2 She started working there _____ month.
- 3 The nominal part of the compound nominal predicate.
- 7 I last saw him _____ Tuesday.
- 9 A word or a phrase which is used to show a short sudden expression of emotion.
- 10 Twelve.
- 12 I suppose any _____ discussion is useless.
- 13 am, is, are, was, were, have been, has been, had been, 'll be.
- 14 One of the three degrees of comparison.
- 16 A demonstrative pronoun.
- 17 A secondary part of the sentence.
- 18 The plural form of "a mouse".
- 20 A principal part of the sentence.
- 21 The past participle of "bite".
- 23 A notional part of speech.
- 26 The superlative form of "little".
- 27 Did you enjoy _____ at the party? –Yes, I did.
- 29 Have you _____ been to London?
- 31 The singular form of "elves".
- 32 It often _____ here in winter.
- 33 The capital of Greece.
- 34 How many students are _____ in your group?

Down:

- 1 She – hers, you – yours, I – _____.
- 2 The past simple and past participle of "leave".
- 3 An independent element of the sentence.
- 4 A modal verb.
- 5 The past simple and past participle of "sleep".
- 6 Are you ready? – Not _____ – wait a moment.
- 8 The comparative form of "a lot".
- 11 1/8.
- 12 A small garden plant with blue flowers.
- 15 The present perfect tense is formed by means of the _____ verb "to have" in the present simple tense and participle II of the notional verb.
- 16 A demonstrative pronoun.
- 19 A quite large four-legged animal which eats grass and leaves and whose singular and plural forms coincide.
- 22 A possessive pronoun in the absolute form.
- 24 Christopher Columbus landed in America on the _____ of October, 1492.
- 25 The superlative form of "few".
- 28 Remember to switch _____ the computer before you go out.
- 30 A negative particle.